

Jason Hyland, Team Leader PRT Ninawa

Jason P. Hyland is the Provincial Reconstruction Team Leader in Ninawa, Iraq's second-largest province, and is based in Mosul. Mr. Hyland is a career Foreign Service Officer with the Department of State. He is a member of the Senior Foreign Service with the rank of Counselor. He served as Deputy Chief of Mission, U.S. Embassy Baku, Azerbaijan, from 2004-2007. Other previous assignments include Political Counselor, U.S. Embassy Kiev, Ukraine; Special Assistant, Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs, Department of State; and Principal Officer, U.S. Consulate, Fukuoka, Japan, representing American interests in western Japan. He received a Group Superior Honor Award from the Department of State for serving on the first Embassy team that entered Kobe, Japan, in February 1995 to assist Americans after the tragic earthquake. From 1992-1994, Mr. Hyland worked in the Office of Independent States and Commonwealth Affairs, Bureau of European Affairs, Department of State, as Deputy of the unit that handled relations with the states of Central Asia in the first years of their independence, receiving a Superior Honor Award for his contributions. In all, Mr. Hyland has worked for seven years on issues of post-totalitarian political and economic transition, governance, rule of law and border security in the former Soviet Union. His first assignment in the Foreign Service Officer was as Vice Consul in Guatemala, 1984-1986. Mr. Hyland holds a Master of Science in National Security Strategy from the National War College (Class of 2000); Master of Arts in Law and Diplomacy from The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University; and Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of California, Berkeley, where he was awarded High Honors in History and Phi Beta Kappa. From 1994-1995, Mr. Hyland was Visiting Foreign Scholar at the University of Tokyo. His foreign languages include Azerbaijani, Ukrainian, Japanese, and Spanish. He received the Sinclair Award from the American Foreign Service Association for his study of the Azerbaijani language. Mr. Hyland's wife, Leslie, is the Director of Financial Management at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA). They have two children, Christian, who is a student at the University of Virginia and an Army ROTC Cadet, and Sophia, who will attend high school in Northern Virginia.